Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace to people of good will!

Dearest readers,

In this time of grace and light, we wish to extend our most sincere wishes for a Holy Christmas.

May the mystery of Jesus' birth fill your hearts with the joy that only He can give: that joy which comes from encountering the One who made Himself small to draw near to each of us, who chose the poverty of a manger to enrich us with His presence, who gave His entire life for our salvation.

This Christmas, let us together rediscover the beauty of that Child who continues to light our paths and give meaning to our life's journey.

We invite you to stay with us in the new year that is about to begin: we have many new things and projects to share with you, stories of hope to tell, and testimonies that warm the heart. And if our Bulletin accompanies you with affection, please help us spread the word: every share is a seed of goodness that can sprout.

May this Christmas be lived in intimacy with Jesus and in the embrace of your loved ones.

May the new year bring you all the Lord's blessing, His peace, and His light.

With Salesian affection,
The Editorial Team of the Salesian Bulletin OnLine
